

A. M. F. HEADS GIVEN 20 YEARS

Government's Charges of Fraud in Mason Cases
Upheld By Jury

SALT LAKE, May 16.—Matthew McBlain Thomson, Dominic Bergera, Thomas Perrott and Robert Jamieson, officers of the American Masonic Federation, convicted by a federal court jury late yesterday on charges of using the mails to defraud in connection with the securing of memberships for their organization, were sentenced to serve two years each on each count in the prison and pay fines of $5000 each. Commitment, however, was deferred for 60 days pending appeal of the decision by attorneys for the accused.

The men were convicted on ten counts each and Federal Judge Martin of Iowa, presiding, sentenced them to serve two years on each count, the sentence to run concurrently. The whereabouts of Robert Jamieson are unknown and he was not brought before the court for trial. He fled when grand jury indictments were returned. Thomson, Bergera and Perrott were released on bond of $15,000 each pending disposition of the appeal which must be made within 60 days. The case was argued by the government yesterday afternoon and a verdict of guilty was returned after a deliberation of about two hours. Judge Wade deferred sentencing the men until this morning.

JURY OUT TWO HOURS
The verdict of guilty was brought in after the jury had deliberated for two hours and immediately upon its return defense counsel announced that an appeal would be made.

Characterized by students of legal history as one of the most unusual cases in the annals of American courts, the trial has been in progress since May 1, during which time upwards of 30 witnesses from all parts of the United States and two from Scotland were heard. More than 150 exhibits were presented in evidence, most of them by the government.

The trial was the outgrowth of an investigation inaugurated by the postoffice department in 1915 and the grand jury indictment which was filed April 23, 1921. Evidence in the trial involved activities of the American Masonic Federation in a dozen states of the union and of Masonic and alleged Masonic bodies in Scotland, England, France, Italy, Spain, Germany and other countries.

When the verdict was presented counsel asked postponement of sentence until this morning and the defendants were released under $10,000 bond each.

FRAUD ALLEGED
The government introduced evidence to show that the defendants had fraudulently claimed regularity of title, and had misrepresented the character of their order through false assertions of its authenticity. The evidence further showed the existence of a corps of organizers directly under Thomson's direction who obtained members on a commission basis.

It was alleged by the government in the closing argument of its counsel that the defendants had taken between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 in the course of their operations in the United States.
